If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	To some extent, the paper provides information about the youth involvement in rural development. This is very important point for developing countries when the youth are recognized as the main actors to push up the progress of rural development. Yes This abstract has not fully provided information for readers, it misses the objective, sample size, originality/ value of this study. The structure is not appropriate. The author should have one section of literature review on participation, youth, and rural activities in the scope of developing countries generally and India particularly. Moreover, the section of method is poor design. It needs to be more specific about the sample, sampling, and data analysis. Also, the section of discussion is missing. To some extent There are no references in introduction section. This is too subjective. The author needs to have references in introduction and other sections further down the paper
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The current English used is poor. It needs to be proficiency to go to the international journal.
Optional/General comments	The idea and topic of paper is so interesting, and it will scientifically contribute to policy maker, researchers, local authorities in the process of rural development. However, the current paper is not enough to be published. The author needs to work intensively to improve the paper.
