Although the COVID-19 epidemic is almost over. Recurrent cases are still reported in some countries. Not suitable. The title: "The Level of Awareness Towards Covid-19 Recurrence Among Adults in Machakos County in Kenya" implies that the study was conducted in adults which means general adults. However, the samples were adult patients. Generally, patients are more likely to have better knowledge and awareness than people who are not sick. To be more specific the title should be changed to "Level of Awareness Towards Covid-19 Recurrence Among Adults COVID-19 Patients in Machakos County in Kenya" Yes. However, subheadings in the Introduction section should be removed; and they can be merged into the text. Yes (after revising the title as suggested above). Yes. However, the reference format should be paid attention. In the template form the web site of the Journal and the previous publication, the Vancouver system is used in the Journal. However, the current manuscript does not use the Vancouver referencing system. Thus, a revision is needed. Additional comments are provided in the attached manuscript.
