Optional/General comments	GENERAL COMMENTS The authors investigated the antioxidant activities of juice samples of Allium cepa bulb and Annona muricata pulp. The rationale behind the study is not outlined at both the abstract and introduction sections of the manuscript. No problem was stated to be addressed by the research question. Brief descriptions about the method should be given instead of just the references. There are few typos and grammatical errors which ought to be checked. Long sentences should be avoided and short sentences used.
