

Editor's Comment:

I evaluated the paper. Read the reviewers' evaluation reports. According to my thought there are some points that made me give this decision: REJECT.

1) Topic is not new or putting a new look to the field.

2) I have evaluated this manuscript as review and I have seen that the grammar and complete text requires change and rewriting.

3) references have no style. Reference in the text is not appeared in the references part. Reference at the references part is not used in the text. The regular academic referencing style is APA. I Agree with the comments of Feedback_AJEB_A_105409_v1_Zak but I am sorry that I can not be that much generous in grading. There are too much corrections required for this manuscript.
