EDITORIAL COMMENT'S on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to editor's comments
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. There are too many spelling mistakes. A native English speaker needs to revise the use of the language.2. APA style or something similar has to be used accordingly.3. There are too many old references (e.g. for example, there are recent policies of Unesco on some of those issues). Authors need to enrich the manuscript with recent publications and discussion on the domain of preschool education.4. It is not clear whether the emphasis is on childcare at specific centres or on education. The policies at different countries and we need to understand which is the emphasis.5. We need to understand why there are references on specific countries (e.g. the United states). How those countries were selected and how there are related with the country where the study was conducted	1, Thank you for your time and comments. I have checked and edited. 2, 3, 4. Author considered all reviewer's notes and recommendations. The article was revised in both content and language issues. 5, Author carefully revised through whole the manuscript regarding citations and reference list.
