I read closely the material you sent me on 2024/SAJSSE/116373. My editorial decision is to publish scholarly book review 2024/SAJSSE/116373 as is.

I suggest revised title: "Book Review on Systemic Risk Prevention and Banking Supervision in China."

Book Review Research on the Formation and Prevention of Systemic Risks in the Banking Industry from the Perspective of Platform Finance by Dr. Zhu Chen (China Social Sciences Press, 2024).

The article is an impressive scholarly book review. The author's points make good common sense to me.
