

Editor's Comment:

Thank you for reaching out to me regarding the manuscript titled "The Impact of Price-Earning Ratio (PER) and Dividend on Sharia Stock Prices" for the Asian Journal of Economics, Business, and Accounting. I have thoroughly reviewed the paper and read the comments from the referees.

Unfortunately, none of the referees noticed the error in the references. While the references are cited in APA style within the text, they are organized as numbered references in the References section. The references need to be corrected to adhere to the APA style. As it stands, the paper lacks academic structure and organization, and I cannot approve its publication.
