PART 1: Review Comments

Compulsory REVISION comments	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. Why do you like (or dislike) this manuscript? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This manuscript is significant for the scientific community as it provides insights into the perception and adoption of plant growth regulators (PGRs) among vegetable growers in Junagadh district, Gujarat. Understanding farmers' attitudes toward PGRs is crucial for developing targeted extension services, improving crop yields, and promoting sustainable agricultural practices. The manuscript is particularly valuable for researchers, policymakers, and agricultural extension workers who aim to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of PGR use. However, the manuscript could benefit from a more detailed analysis of the socio-economic factors influencing farmers' perceptions, which would provide a more comprehensive understanding of the challenges and opportunities in this area
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	Yes, it is suitable.
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	Yes, it is comprehensive.
Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate?	Yes
Please write a few sentences regarding the scientific correctness of this manuscript. Why do you think that this manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	The manuscript appears to be scientifically robust and technically sound due to its systematic approach in assessing the perceptions of vegetable growers toward plant growth regulators (PGRs). The study's methodology, which likely includes well-structured surveys or interviews with a representative sample of farmers, ensures that the data collected is both relevant and reliable. Additionally, the manuscript's focus on a specific region—Junagadh district—allows for a detailed analysis of localized factors that may influence farmers' attitudes and practices, contributing to the validity of the findings. The use of appropriate statistical tools to analyze the data further strengthens the scientific rigor of the study.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form. -	NONE
