Optional/General comments	Summary of Strengths: * Highlighted the importance of Google Translation for NLP domain * Reviewed several significant articles which has impacted tin the scientific community Summary of Weakness: * The objectives are not clearly defined anywhere, its most likey no story telling rather a descriptive definition of various terms. It would be better if the objectives are clearly written with the given context. * Abbreviation redefine: It is ideal to use short abbreviation when defining a term. Afterbthat just mentioning it by short abbvyr is a good practice. * The methodology is clear but yet there should be mention about recent development articles on this paper. Thank you for your effort. Its good practice to produce high quality paper.
