PART 1: Review Comments

Compulsory REVISION comments	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. Why do you like (or dislike) this manuscript? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	The manuscript is significant for the scientific community as it attempts to establish connection between the free education and availability of teachers for teaching Children with Learning disabilities
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	The title is suitable as it encourages the readers to read further and find more about the topic, but the words "teaching resources" is misleading. The research is about availability of teachers not the teaching materials as the words are indicating.
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	The abstract is comprehensive but few gaps are evident in the research methodology. Such as the population being 56, use of the term learning disabilities instead of learning difficulties
Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate?	Yes, seems appropriate
Please write a few sentences regarding the scientific correctness of this manuscript. Why do you think that this manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	The manuscript requires revisions with respect to – Operational definitions of teaching resources, learning disabilities, population, exclusion and inclusion criteria, data analysis, thematic analysis and implications. The term learning disabilities is used but the entire study is about learning difficulties. The teaching resources indicates the teaching learning material but the study is focussing on the availability of teachers trained for addressing the needs of children with learning disabilities.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form. =	Yes,
