Please write a few sentences regarding the scientific correctness of this manuscript. Why do you think that this manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This article has used GDP rate in different periods and debt rate for a better understanding. Quoting the figures and using citations throughout the article proves that the article is written with an intention of reaching the readers with valid and complete details about the Nigerian economy. The title and the article both are very much needed for this hour. The details which are present will help the global economies and other international institutions to really look into the problems of the nation. With a practical approach, it awakens the policy makers to be cautious from making vague policies and instils a strong sense of justice and responsibility on their shoulders. This article is truly valuable and worth of studying because it helps to understand that despite of being naturally endowed with resources, how can people with power and no moral and ethical considerations can lead to a distressed economy.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	Citations and references are present except a few references are missing. Please go through the highlighted citations to get clarity.
Minor REVISION comments Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The language is very impressive and shows that the researcher has taken a special interest in adding new vocabulary. However, in few places grammar check is required which can lead to rephrasing of sentences and other minor corrections which will enhance the quality of work.
Optional/General comments	This article is an amazing work and the topic is very crucial and highly important for all the policy makers. The language and alignment is very impressive. Some minor corrections have been addressed and highlighted in the manuscript, so once the researcher reads them, should be able to overcome them and I appreciate the work of the researcher for selecting this topic. No competing interest or any such issues have been found. No ethical issues found in this.
