

Editor's Comment:

I have gone through the revised manuscript. Minor changes are required in the abstract that have been mentioned below.

(1) It is recommended to write "Aluminium laminated pouches" as "aluminium laminated pouches" in the abstract.

(2) The last sentence of the abstract needs to be rewritten. The sentence "and microbiological study depicted. Storage in plastic pouch is less than 90 days, based on the growth of yeast and mold" does not make any sense.

After correction, the manuscript can be published in your journal.
