Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	1. I strongly agree that this text is very important and interesting to be researched scientifically to be able to provide attention and awareness of the importance of children's education at the basic level to be prioritized by the state to build resources for the golden age as a foundation for children to make it the basis of sustainable education starting from basic education. Therefore, there needs to be harmony between the government and society to support and prepare infrastructure and resources that meet good standards. 2. I suggest the title is: " Analysis of education policy primary school of uensang District, Nagaland, North East India" 3. The abstract is incomplete, especially the problem statement is less visible and does not describe the complete research results 4. The subsections and structure of the manuscript are in accordance with the rules of scientific writing 5. References are still lacking, especially related to basic education theory and related research results
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?
Optional/General comments
