Optional/General comments	The final paragraph of the introduction mentions the effects of plant extracts containing saponins and other ingredients. While this information might be relevant in a broader context, the manuscript's focus lies specifically on polysaccharides. To strengthen the introduction's focus, consider: Eliminating the final paragraph and expanding on the importance of polysaccharides in the existing introduction. Revising the final paragraph to emphasize the specific role of polysaccharides within the context of the broader plant extract effects mentioned. Additionally, adding a paragraph explicitly discussing the polysaccharide's mechanism of action against bacteria would be beneficial.
