If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	1. Promoting physical activity in children is of paramount importance worldwide. Public school-based programs should be seriously improved. However, a major cultural change is also necessary. 2. Not really- The article title is misleading given that the main issue is improving physical activity in children. 3. Abstract findings are quite confusing since there is a mix-up of objective findings and AA' opinions. 4. Subsections and Ms structure are appropriate. 5. Not applicable being an opinion paper. 6. Cited literature is sufficiently recent and covers the treated issues.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Language needs improvement to better communicate the Ms content.
Optional/General comments	Promoting physical activity since young age is a very important issue worldwide. The current Ms is evidencing the problematic issues present in the GHANA country that get in the way against a proper extension of physical activity to most of young population individuals. Cultural as well as the structural issues already evidenced by the AAs (i.e., structural defects, infrastructure gap and lack of wholistic framing) should be more extensively discussed to give a better comprehension of the problem and pave the way to possible solutions by new future country government policies.
