

Editor's Comment:

The manuscript titled "Sustainability of Livelihood of Tribal Society in Rural Odisha Through Upskilling the Youth Mass: An Empirical Study" for the Asian Journal of Economics, Business, and Accounting. I appreciate the opportunity to review this paper.

After carefully reviewing the manuscript and the review reports, I regret to inform you that I cannot accept this paper for publication. The study lacks a clear statement of the hypothesis and does not provide a test result or address the concerns raised by the reviewers. Based on the current version, it does not meet the academic standards required for publication.
