(If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	The study holds significant importance within the scientific community. It has highlighted compelling evidence indicating that students have displayed a neutral interest in religious classes. However, it's important to note that the results outlined in the manuscript may not be applicable universally. Yes, the title is suitable. Yes, but an author should provide more details about study design and methodology Absolutely, although there are several areas in the manuscript that could be enhanced. For instance, the literature review appears to be lacking in depth. Additionally, in Table 1, the author omitted to include the total sample size. In Table 2, explanations were only provided for significant values, whereas it would have been beneficial for the author to present alternative models by excluding non-significant variables from the given model. Yes, also effort of the author should be appreciated Author should provide some current references.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Yes
Optional/General comments
