The title appropriately reflects the contents of the manuscript. The abstract effectively summarizes the paper and provides insight into the manuscript. The subsections and structure are appropriate. However, the introduction lacks the objective or purpose of the paper. It is important to clearly state the paper's objective and provide background information in the introduction. The rest of the content in the introduction is satisfactory. The manuscript lacks discussion on fundamental aspects of a research paper, such as Coleridge's theory of imagination and Ai Qing's poetic philosophy. It's essential to provide a brief discussion of these theories and philosophy. Additionally, including a section on research methods and clearly indicating the start of the analysis of Ai Qing's poems would enrich the manuscript. The references provided are sufficient for the manuscript.
Minor REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications? 	Yes, the command of English is very good and suitable for scholarly communication.
Optional/General comments	The manuscript offers a valuable resource for the scientific community. I, therefore, recommend its publication with some minor corrections highlighted in point 5 above.
