

Editor's Comment:

After a thorough review of the manuscript and the comments provided by the two reviewers, I appreciate their insightful comments. I confirmed that the authors adequately addressed the reviewers' concerns.

However, I would like to highlight a few points:

1. Authors must include a declaration regarding any potential competing interests.
2. The section on author contributions is currently missing.
3. The citation of bibliographic references does not meet the requirements of the journal.

Overall, the content of the manuscript is precise, clear, coherent and complies with the editorial standards of the journal. I deem the manuscript suitable for publication.
