Compulsory REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Is the manuscript important for scientific community? (Please write few sentences on this manuscript) Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title) Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) are often hailed as the backbone of India's economic development, contributing significantly to GDP, employment, and exports. This manuscript critically analyzes the role of MSMEs in India's economic landscape, exploring their impact on job creation, innovation, and regional development. It delves into the challenges these enterprises face, such as limited access to finance, technological constraints, and regulatory hurdles, while also highlighting policy measures and initiatives aimed at strengthening the MSME sector. Through a comprehensive examination, the manuscript aims to elucidate whether MSMEs truly constitute the pillar of India's economic growth and sustainability. The title is clear and suitable for an academic article. However, to make it more concise and engaging, you might consider a slight modification: "Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises on Pillar Behind India's Economic Development: A Critical Analysis". The abstract is generally comprehensive but could benefit from some rephrasing for clarity and conciseness. To ensure a comprehensive and structured analysis, the manuscript should be organized into clear and logical subsections. Based on the provided abstract and structure, the manuscript appears to be on the right track but would benefit from thorough peer review to ensure scientific accuracy and validity. To assess the references in the manuscript is sufficient and recent.
Minor REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications? 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Based on this assessment, the article's English quality can be considered suitable for scholarly communications, provided that similar attention to detail is maintained throughout the entire text. Regular proofreading and adherence to academic standards are essential for ensuring high-quality scholarly writing.
