PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments 1. Is the manuscript important for scientific community? (Please write few sentences on this manuscript) 2. Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	Though the issue raised in the manuscript is an important public health concern but the manuscript is in no way aligned to the purpose of the study as defined by the author. The objectives of the study have not been defined properly. It seems more of a review paper than research. The author mentions in the beginning of the manuscript that it is a qualitative research but no methodology has been used as such for data collection in the entire manuscript. The author mentions that Noida region was used for data collection but later on mentions that the North east region was used for the study. There is a vast discrepancy between the locale of the study and the methodology used and the results of the study. There is no mention of the tool used for data collection and the scoring process. The sample size is not appropriate and the sampling technique used is biased in nature. The title also does not seem apt and could have been like Domestic Violence in India: A Public Health Concern No No, The References are very few and all the referencing has not been done in the proper format. Full information is also missing in some of the references. The author has also taken recent references. I would like to suggest the author to provide well defined objectives, be more focused on the methodology part of the study and provide findings as per the objectives of the study.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The language of the article is not clear and lucid.
Optional/General comments
