If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> This manuscript is important for the scientific community as it sheds light on the intricate social dynamics influencing healthcare utilization among rural women in Cross River State, Nigeria. By addressing factors such as gender roles, access to healthcare resources, and the role of social support networks and trust in healthcare providers, it provides valuable insights for policymakers, healthcare providers, social workers, and researchers aiming to develop effective interventions to address healthcare disparities in rural communities. The title of the article, "Understanding Social Dynamics and Healthcare Delivery: A Focus on Rural Women in Cross River State, Nigeria," is suitable as it accurately reflects the scope and focus of the manuscript. The abstract of the article provides a comprehensive overview of the key points discussed in the manuscript, including the influence of social dynamics on healthcare utilization among rural women and the proposed interventions to address barriers to access and utilization of healthcare services. However, it could be enhanced by briefly mentioning the specific findings or conclusions drawn from the analysis. The subsections and structure of the manuscript are appropriate, providing a clear and organized presentation of the key concepts and discussions. However, minor revisions may be needed to ensure consistency in formatting and clarity in the presentation of ideas. The manuscript appears scientifically correct, as it integrates relevant literature and research findings to support its arguments and conclusions. However, ensuring accuracy in the presentation of data and referencing is crucial. The references provided are sufficient and recent, covering a wide range of relevant literature on healthcare delivery, social determinants of health, and healthcare utilization among rural women. However, adding recent studies or reports specific to healthcare delivery in rural areas of Nigeria could further enrich the discussion.
Minor REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications? 	The language and English quality of the article are suitable for scholarly communications. However, minor revisions may be needed to ensure clarity, coherence, and consistency in language and terminology throughout the manuscript.
