If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	1- This plant is more characteristic of India. To highlight the importance of this manuscript, it is necessary to mention the necessity of this plant for other countries around the world. This plant can be used as a bioadsorbent, which can be more interesting. The author can clarify the necessity of this plant by mentioning the various scientific studies where it was used. 2-Yes, the title is suitable 3-Yes, it's. 4-No, the manuscript is so poor, the author must work more on its structure. 5-Yes. 6- No, as I mentioned previously, the authors could have cited studies conducted on this plant. As it is a biomass, they could have referenced various biomasses used for the depollution of wastewater. This reference could be useful : Merah, M., Boudoukha, C., Avalos Ramirez, A., Haroun, M. F., &amp; Maane, S. (2023). High biosorption of cationic dye onto a novel material based on paper mill sludge. Scientific Reports, 13(1), 15926.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	-Yes, it's
Optional/General comments	- The manuscript lacks references. A review should contain a maximum number of references. The introduction does not contain any references except for an anonymous reference that is not professional. - A comparison with other mustard varieties from around the world, including the Indian variety, is mandatory. This should involve mentioning the different methods and nutrients used. - More recent references must be added. - In conclusion, the author should give their opinion on these nutrients, whether they are for or against them, along with a justification.
