Revisions recommended:

-The article needs English correction;

In the Abstract section:

-Please add a Background phrase to introduce the reader into the problem

-Please consider replacing "p<0.5" with "p<0.05"

In the Keywords section:

-I recommend to remove "gradient centrifugation" and "Nitroblue tetrazolium" and to add "dental bleaching"

In the Introduction section:

-The references must be cited in the order of their appearance in text

-Please rephrase "This study aimed to study"

-Study hypothesis must be mentioned

In the Materials and methods section:

-Please explain why the concentrations of 3g/200 ml and 6g/200 ml were selected;

-Subsection 2.7 – Statistical analysis – please mention the statistical software you used, and the "p" value

In the Discussion section:

-Mention the verification or not of study hypothesis

In the References section:

-Please follow the recommended style of the journal for references. Also, the references should be numbered in the order of their appearance in text, and all the references from the "References" section should be mentioned in text.
