Do not cut the tables.	The grammar has been properly checked and tables and figures has been properly referenced in the text. References has been properly arranged and cited in the work according to AJEES. The SPSS outputs remain the same as this is my undergraduate bachelors work which was defended and submitted to University of Benin, Nigeria. This paper is to be published for the use of admission purpose as requirement into Masters program in University of Benin, hence the raw data remains the same as sudden change cannot be made to it.
