

Editor's Comment:

To: Managing Editor FE 25 <editor.25@sciencedomain.org>

Your manuscript was read by three reviewers who gave their opinion with some comments for its improvement. You have taken into account the opinions of reviewers.

The publication of this text may be accepted after some additional improvements concerning the references.

Bibliographic references must be presented according to the journal's standards. Look "Reference style" at the website: <https://peerreviewcentral.com/page/general-guideline-for-authors>

According to this rule,

"KALIL EB. – 1970 – Classification Of Experiments With Animals. ANIMAL SCIENCE (SÃO PAULO), 8 (4): 25-29."

must be written:

"Kalil EB. Classification of experiments with animals. Animal science (São Paulo). 1970;8(4):25-29."

"WILLIAMS EJ. – 1950 – Experimental Designs Balanced For The Estimation Of Residual Effects Of Treatments. AUSTRALIAN JOURNAL OF ANIMAL SCIENCE, 2: 149-168."

must be written:

"Williams EJ. – 1950 – Experimental designs balanced for the estimation of residual effects of treatments. Australian Journal of animal science. 1950;2:149-168."

Please check that all references are written in journal style.

Editor's Details:

Honorary Prof. Jean-Marie Exbrayat
Lyon Catholic University (UCLy), France
And
Emeritus Professor & Director of Studies, Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes (EPHE), France.