I recommend publication of this manuscript are the corrections suggested below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Abstract is very thin on results and discussion, but too long on Materials and Methods. The authors should re-write the abstract and include more detail results and discussion. At the end of Introduction, please state the objective/s of the study. The opening sentences for the Materials and Methods essentially belong to Introduction. Also, the objective for the study that has been put in Materials and Methods, which is not correct. Please, transfer the opening sentences and objective to the Introduction | |
