If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form.</li> </ol> (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	This is a discussion of patient violence in psychiatric emergencies. A very clinically important and interesting topic. However, since it is neither a review nor a case report, the style of the manuscript needs to be reconsidered. A few more real-life examples should be included and discussed. It is difficult within the scope of medicine to discuss the relationship to crime, and perhaps more emphasis should be placed on the relationship to medical symptoms. Furthermore, it would be good to ask native English speakers to revise the English text if possible. Some of the grammar is incorrect.
Minor REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?</li> </ol>
Optional/General comments
