(If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. 7. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	Importantly, research like this is really needed to see the effect of hyperlipidemia on health A little not suitable because in the research method paper the title is not appropriate. 'Effect of Ethanol Extract of Moringa oleifera on the Rat Model of Hyperlipidemia Due to High Fat' incomplete must be adjusted to the contents of a good and correct abstract It is still lacking in terms of research results and less specific methods I am a little doubtful because many statistical tests on the results are not explained clearly and coherently It's sufficient 1. Write of tittle must be accordance with research method used 2. Calculations of dose need to be paid attention to in experimental animals 3. Used of completely randomized design to this research
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	It's suitable
