Optional/General comments	Well articulated research work. Risk factors can be discussed before evaluation and treatment in the introduction section. Better to place before management of disease. The need of this study very breif . It can be explained with bit more details. Type of study is not mentioned. The imaging details of patients are missing. What is the status of tumour markers for ovarian germ cell tumours? Is it not done in any patient? What of treatment of malignant germ cell tumours in this study? How do you want to screen these patients? Is it practical? Or any screening tests recommended for ovarian germ cell tumours?
