(If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	The idea is good because it addresses the global issue of weather conditions affecting farmers, particularly those in developing countries who have limited awareness of these conditions. These farmers rely on their faith in God to guide them in planting their crops, as they lack access to advisory services regarding weather forecasts. It is good but including the research design and data analysis method It needs revision. Some subsections are jumped like significance of the research, research design, sampling techniques, data analysis, demographic characteristics of the respondent and so on. If some of the gaps fill, it will be a scientific manuscript. Otherwise it is difficult scientific manuscript because there is no research methodology. The manuscript, totally, has no citation in the document but the author(s) are simply put the references in the paper.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	It is good
Optional/General comments	The manuscript requires detail revision from the background to the analysis part.
