Optional/General comments	The nutritional characteristics of millet crops were reviewed in this paper, which has certain scientific value. Suggestions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Use generic names for millet crops in the text, not Indian names; Units of quantity do not use lakh, etc., use international units 2. Some data in the paper are not in coherent, such as the cellulose content of 18% in the first, but much lower mentioned later; One of the millet yield mentioned is 127Kg/hectare, which is too low, it needs to be verified 3. Table 2 and figure 2 have the same meaning, the figure can be deleted 4. The conclusion part is too wordy. It needs to be distilled and simplified
