

Editor's Comment:

I checked the paper and the revision. It is ok and as per the report of the reviewers, the paper is accepted for publication, with the following remarks

1. some minor typo corrections are required, for example, in reference 40, the first letter of all words in the journal name shall be capitalized.
2. As I mentioned earlier, after revision, the paper shall be sent again to the reviewers to get a final comment that all changes have been incorporated.
