The verb "protects" should be in the correct form to match the subject "malaria." In this case, the correct form of the verb should be "protect," not "protects." Therefore, the corrected title should be "Does malaria protect against COVID-19?" The title is not well structured. It needs correction. I would suggest "Exploring the Potential Relationship Between Malaria Immunity and COVID-19 Protection" as the title. The abstract is too short. The abstract is only 5 words. Generally, an APA abstract should have between 150 to 250 words Yes Yes Yes
