

Editor's Comment:

After studying the materials received, we can say the following.

The materials and methods indicate that an assessment of the significance of the differences was performed.

However, the study results do not provide information about the significance of differences between groups.

It is necessary to supplement the manuscript with this data!

Therefore, in general, I recommend accepting the manuscript.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Viktor Lemiasheuski

Associate Professor, International Sakharov Environmental Institute, Belarusian State University, Republic of Belarus.