If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	The case report is a good attempt to add to the plethora of literature. It talks about a rare entity. Authors have explained everything as much as would be expected of a case report, precise and to the point. However, the management done for the patient can be added, it is mentioned that a biopsy was taken and squamous cell carcinoma was revealed but what was done after that is missing. Yes, it forces the reader to be curious about what is about to come. In my opinion, abstract could be better. The last paragraph can be omitted or put above in the starting. Yes Yes Yes but the referencing style is not uniform, the authors have to revise it. Citation in the text is again not uniform, the full stop or period has to come after the number, eg [1].
