

SDI FINAL EVALUATION FORM 1.1

PART 1:

Journal Name:	Asian Journal of Research in Surgery
Manuscript Number:	Ms_AJRS_120040
Title of the Manuscript:	Sacral chordoma: A rare tumour of the buttocks
Type of Article :	Case report

PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
Considering the intricate nature of the topic under discussion, I believe that most of the explanations and adjustments made in response to the reviewers' concerns have enhanced the clarity of the manuscript and shed light on some underlying issues. Having implemented plenty of the necessary changes and improvements, I am certain that the authors are getting closer to meeting all the technical requirements and scientific standards for publication approval. I have decided to accept the publication if minor changes are made, specifically in the article's "conclusion" section, which requires revisiting and reformulation.
