Considering the reviewer comments, the authors feedback and the revised version, the paper can be accepted for publication.

Only, one observation: I do not understand the mention of Switzerland in Introduction, I cite this paragraph: "In Europe, Great Britain and Switzerland have long resisted joining the eurozone. While the former ratified the act of leaving the European Union in a referendum on June 23, 2016, further distancing itself from the European single currency project, the latter preferred to maintain privileged relations under the banner of the Schengen area."

Switzerland is not a member state of European Union and less of the eurozone. Did the authors think at Sweden and they confused with Switzerland?
