Minor REVISION comments Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?
Optional/General comments	This manuscript examines various types of regression models and methods for evaluating their accuracy, as well as several data factors that influence this accuracy. The content is relevant to the journal's scope and is suitable for publication. However, the following issues need to be addressed in the manuscript before it can be published in the journal: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1, The manuscript should be renamed to accurately reflect its content: "Overview of Regression Models and How to Determine the Best Model for Data." 2, The section on the models and data used should be condensed, focusing solely on the regression models relevant to the article's objectives. 3, The manuscript's structure should be reorganized to comply with the journal's guidelines and the typical format of the paper. The content of this manuscript should be focused, and the number of headings should be reduced.
