Minimum 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This manuscript needs to be redone. The problem is not well developed. Further, the research questions appear not to be fully suiting on the topic. Literature review to develop the concepts has been weakly done. The methodology section is extremely weak. I have made some suggestion on the manuscript for consideration. The results are poorly presented and argued. The analytical technique is ery weak. I suggest that inferential statistical techniques be employed.
