[6] studied the effect of auxins on the rooting of terminal cuttings of Chrysanthemum morifolium cv. Flirt and recorded the highest number of roots per cutting with IBA at 250 ppm. If this writing system is correct for this Journal then it is OK. But Instead of this writing : Sidhu and Singh studied the effect of auxins on the rooting of terminal cuttings of Chrysanthemum morifolium cv. Flirt and recorded the highest number of roots per cutting with IBA at 250 ppm [6]. This writing system will be better I think. I recommend this writing system. The other part of the article is OK. For me.
