PART 1: Review Comments

| Compulsory REVISION comments | Reviewer's comment | Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here) |
|---|--|---|
| Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. Why do you like (or dislike) this manuscript? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part. | I like this manuscript because this study examined the analgesic and anti-inflammatory activity of an ethanolic extract of Allophylus spicatus leaves in albino mice, taking into account the socioeconomic impacts of pain and inflammation as well as the need to search for effective antipain and anti-inflammatory drugs with minimal side effects from traditional medicinal plants. | |
| Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title) | yes | |
| Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here. | yes | |
| Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? | yes | |
| Please write a few sentences regarding the scientific correctness of this manuscript. Why do you think that this manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part. | The findings validate the traditional medical practitioners' folklore usage of A. spicatus to treat a variety of aches and inflammatory disorders, including fever, rheumatism, and arthritis. However, more research is required to determine the likely mode of action for the analgesic and anti-inflammatory properties as well as to identify the bioactive components of A. spicatus that are accountable for the effects. | |
| Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form. | yes | |
| Minor REVISION comments | | |
| Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications? | yes | |
