The research aims are well-focused, the focus on clinical intervention aspects and coping strategies is very interesting.
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Yes
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The abstract is ok
Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The introduction should be expanded with a comparison of the relevant topics in the field's literature. For example, regarding the study's objectives, what does the existing literature say? - The manuscript lacks a results section and moves directly to discussing the study variables as if they were part of the discussion. The authors should include a dedicated results section, detailing what the selected studies investigated and the statistical outcomes they obtained. Additionally, there is a missing section in the methods that should describe the methodological structure of the selected studies (cross-sectional? randomized controlled trial? observational study? cohort study? etc.). These results should then be discussed in the discussion section, expanding on what has already been written for each study variable. -
