Optional/General comments	It refers to the evaluation in sodic soils. But the information on sodicity is not given. Why sodic soils are selected. Give the statistics regarding the area of bitter gourd in sodic soils in India and abroad. The estimation of genetic parameters are the preliminary type of work. Simply by giving data on genetic parameters is not sufficient to publish as a full length paper. It may consider as short communication. Provided the data on the sodicity of soils where the experiment was conducted and the importance of the sodicity where the gourd is cultivated.
