PART 1: Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This manuscript is a valuable contribution to the scientific community, as it delves into the growing field of nutraceuticals and their potential role in obesity management. By exploring the biochemical and physiological mechanisms behind weight regulation, it provides a scientific foundation for developing evidence-based strategies to combat obesity—a global public health challenge. The insights gained from this research can guide future studies, inform clinical practices, and encourage the development of nutraceutical-based interventions. Furthermore, it addresses the critical need for sustainable and holistic approaches to weight management, bridging the gap between nutritional science and healthcare solutions.
