PART 1: Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This manuscript addresses a critical issue by analyzing the implementation of policies encouraging college graduates to start businesses in their hometowns. It provides valuable insights into policy awareness, effectiveness, and challenges, particularly in the context of China's rural revitalization strategy. The findings have significant implications for policymakers, educators, and researchers aiming to improve policy design and implementation. By focusing on foreign language graduates, the study highlights specific challenges faced by this group, which could inspire further targeted research.
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	The current title, "Analysis on the implementation of policies encouraging graduates starting businesses in their hometowns," is clear and relevant. However, a more concise and engaging alternative could be: "Policy Implementation for Graduate Entrepreneurship in Hometowns: A Case Study from Hebei."
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	The abstract is comprehensive, covering the aims, methodology, results, and conclusions effectively. To enhance clarity, the challenges faced during policy implementation could be briefly summarized. Additionally, the abstract could mention the specific contributions of the study, such as its focus on foreign language graduates, to emphasize its unique perspective.
Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.	Yes, the manuscript is scientifically sound. The methodology is appropriate, and the findings align with the data presented. However, adding more detail on the sampling process and justifying the selection of foreign language graduates would strengthen its scientific rigor.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	The references are sufficient and mostly recent, but a few more international studies on similar policies in other countries could provide valuable comparative insights. Incorporating such references would enhance the global relevance of the study.
Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The language quality is generally suitable for scholarly communication. However, some sentences could be made more concise, and a thorough proofreading is recommended to improve readability and eliminate minor grammatical errors.
