PART 1: Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. This manuscript will contribute significantly to the understanding of the socio-economic conditions and traditional ecological knowledge (TEK) of women in the Chakrata District, Uttarakhand. 2. It will also fill a critical gap in the documentation and analysis of indigenous practices. 3. The paper will help to offer valuable insights into the intersection of gender, caste, and ecology. 4. Finally, the paper sheds light on the systemic challenges faced by women, such as hygiene, nutrition, and access to resources, while highlighting their pivotal role in sustaining agriculture and preserving traditional knowledge.
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	Yes, the manuscript title is suitable.
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	Yes, the abstract is good and comprehensive.
Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.	The manuscript appears to be scientifically robust. It uses a comprehensive methodology, including field surveys, interviews in the local Jaunsari language, and data from government census records. The author(s) triangulate qualitative and quantitative data effectively, providing tables and figures to illustrate key findings.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	The references are recent but not sufficient. I suggest the writer increase the number of references in the manuscript.
Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Yes, the language quality of the paper is suitable for scholarly communications.
Optional/General comments	The manuscript is good and fit for publication, however, I suggest the writer to provide a section for literature review. This section is important because it will help to give information on what other authors have done on the subject and study gaps as well as the value addition of the study. Additionally, there is need for recommendation section, otherwise one may conclude that the paper does not provide any actionable take home message for policymakers. There are no ethical issues in the manuscript as per my review No competing interest issues are found in the manuscript No plagiarism found
