Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	The submission is important as it addresses a critical public health concern, the resurgence of typhoid fever on Boda, Chad. The manuscript highlights key risk factors such as hygiene practices, antibiotic resistance and self-medication. Moreover, it provides data on the limitations of diagnostic tools like the Widal and Felix tests, which could guide improvements in healthcare practices in resource-limited settings.
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	The title is appropriate and reflects the manuscript's focus.
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	The abstract is concise summary but there is a need of improvement as such in quantifying findings (e.g., prevalence rates, demographic data) and mentioning the study's implications for public health or policy-making
Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.	The manuscript is scientifically draft whoever a few concerns arise such as reliance on the Widal and Felix tests, which have known limitations, should be critically discussed with a stronger justification for their use.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	Also references on current typhoid fever diagnostics and treatment strategies, antibiotic resistance and hygiene practices in sub-Saharan Africa to provide updated context may enhance the manuscript's depth.
Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Simplify complex sentences for broader accessibility and correct occasional typos
Optional/General comments	Though no competing interest observed in the manuscripts but the Authors should explicitly declare this PLEASE CHECK ATTACHMENT
