Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This manuscript is significant for the scientific community as it provides valuable insights into the diversity of Bacillus thuringiensis (Bt) strains in various agro-ecological zones of Mali, a region where Bt-based research has been relatively limited. By identifying and characterizing Bt strains and their associated Cry genes, the study expands the existing Bt strain repository, offering potential applications in biocontrol strategies for pest management and sustainable agriculture. Additionally, the findings highlight the genetic diversity of Cry genes, which could be instrumental in developing novel biopesticides tailored to specific environmental and agricultural needs. This work also establishes a foundation for further exploration of Bt strains in West Africa, contributing to global efforts in biodiversity conservation and sustainable agricultural practices.
