PART 1: Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	This manuscript offers critical insights into the challenges faced by students with hearing impairments in achieving academic success, with a specific focus on Iringa Girls' Secondary School in Tanzania. It highlights systemic barriers such as inadequate resources, insufficient specialized teachers, and limited support from school leadership. By identifying these issues and proposing targeted interventions, the study significantly contributes to the broader discourse on inclusive education. The findings underscore the importance of fostering equitable learning environments and enhancing support systems, making this research a valuable resource for educators, policymakers, and advocates aiming to promote academic excellence among students with disabilities.
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	The title of the article, " The Poor Performance of Students with Hearing Impairments in Tanzania: A Case Study of Iringa Girls' Secondary School, " is appropriate as it reflects the core focus of the study. It clearly outlines the subject (students with hearing impairments), the issue (poor performance), and the geographical and institutional context (Tanzania, Iringa Girls' Secondary School).
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	The abstract of the article is reasonably comprehensive, as it outlines the study's focus, methodology, findings, and implications. However, there are opportunities to enhance clarity and completeness.
Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.	The manuscript is scientifically correct in its conceptual framework, research methodology, and conclusions.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	The manuscript references a broad range of sources, including books, journal articles, and official reports. While the references include several recent works (e.g., studies from 2018–2022), some older sources (e.g., Bronfenbrenner, 1994; Travers & Tincani, 2010) are included. These foundational references are relevant but should be supplemented with newer studies.
Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The language and English quality of the article are generally suitable for scholarly communication, but there are areas that could benefit from refinement to enhance clarity, professionalism, and conciseness.
Optional/General comments	Overall, this is a valuable contribution to the field of inclusive education.
